As people head to school and work, I ask that You would help us to love one another through our work. Thank you for the roles each person in our community plays so we can all benefit

Keep the eyes of our community's heart outward, so that we are inspired to use our gifts to serve.

Like Ruth, multiply our faith in you and our service performed out of love, so it produces far more than we'd ever comprehend.

Lift our friends and neighbours in their work too.

Dear Families

Thank you for the important role you play each year to ensure that partnerships with all the community have been established to strengthen the links between school and home. The Whole School Mass, the New Parents' Sundowner and the Parent Information Evening are just a few examples to demonstrate this involvement. We are also appreciative of the parents who are already helping out in so many capacities, in the classroom, assisting in the canteen, organising the New Parent Sundowner and the Class Representatives who are gathering the parents together in each year level. Research shows that participation, assistance and the support of parents greatly enhances outcomes for students of all ages.

Our first Parents & Friends meeting, held on Monday 11 February, was the beginning of another year of parents giving of their time and talents. The large group that gathered will be assisting the P&F Executive in their endeavours this year. The Liwara P&F has always been a strength, with outstanding commitment to the goals and aspirations of the school. They work effectively and collaboratively with the Principal and staff to achieve these objectives each year and there is an acknowledge relationship between the child, the school and home life. Where harmonious relationships and partnerships exist the benefits are many for children's development. Our 2019 Parents and Friends Executive are as follows:

SCHOOL BOARD

Our first School Board meeting was held on Tuesday 19 February where the Board members spent the evening with Jeff Thorne from Thorne Consulting discussing and planning for the new Strategic Plan. Jeff met with the staff at the end of 2018 and will keep the community updated as things progress. School Boards enable a spirit of partnership to be developed within the school community. Through partnerships, and by the coming together of various people with a range of gifts and talents, the school will become a stronger community and be more effective in its religious dimension, individual identity and educational charter. Our 2019 School Board comprises of:

Chair: Basil Manganaro	Vice Chair: Michael Craig
Treasurer: Clare Combe	Secretary: Paul O'Brien
Board Members:	Jane Carmigani & Nicola McVay
P&F Representative: Amy Styles	Parish Council Representative: John Fernandez
Parish Priest: Fr Elver Delicano

IMPROVED STUDENT SAFETY MEASURES

Many of you might have noticed some High Standard Security (HSS) vans and activity centred around the two Tuart Road entry gates in Carpark 1 and 2 this last week. At the end of last year the School Board endorsed my request for the installation of two access controlled gates to increase our safety measures for the students in our care. In the next few weeks gates 3 & 4 will be fitted with electromagnetic locks, audio intercom door stations, vandal resistant codepads and egress buttons. The intent is to create a secure perimeter within the school to avoid unwanted persons from entering the property between the hours of 9.30am—2.30pm and also to give our parents with prams and toddlers, and grandparents easy access to the front admin when they park in Carpark 1. No more having to scale the grassed bank or walk right around to the top carpark! Once the gates have been activated (the community will be given plenty of notice) any visitors to the school between the hours of 9.30am—2.30pm will be instructed to use the audio intercom to speak to one of the office staff for access. The staff will check the identity of the visitor and allow them entry. An egress button will be in place when leaving the site. The same system of signing in and signing students out in the main Administration building will continue as per normal for all visitors & parents.

LADS CAMP

By the look of all the happy smiling faces in the photographic montage on the following page many of our families enjoyed the camping weekend organised by the LADS. This group of dads is inspiring in the way they are reaching out to the dads and father figures in our school community. Well done on the many new initiatives that are being introduced by this enthusiastic group each year!

KINDY 2021 – ENROLMENTS NOW OPEN

If you have a child born between 1 July 2016 and 30 June 2017, they will be eligible for Kindy 2021. If you haven't already handed in your Enrolment Application Forms for your child please do so as soon as possible. The forms can be downloaded from the school website or you can pick them up from the Administration office. As a sibling, there will be no need for an interview, unless you request to meet with the Principal.

If you have any friends with children in this age group, please advise them that we will be interviewing NON-SIBLINGS in Week 7 (18 – 29 March) and that they will need to get their Enrolment Application in to us as soon as possible.

Wishing you God's blessings

2019 Liwara Camp Night

On the weekend, more than 20 Liwara families camped in the lovely suburban oasis at Karrinyup Waters Resort.

Kids jumped tirelessly on the jumpy pillow, while parents mingled and relaxed and enjoyed the natural beauty of the campgrounds.

Gorgeous summer weather allowed for swimming in any of the three swimming pools in the afternoon.

Many parents chipped in to cook a delicious breakfast of bacon and egg sandwiches for all. Thank you to EVERYONE who came along!

All Liwara dads and father figures can join the LADS Facebook group for the latest details on LADS events.

Thank You

Members of the Greenwood Conference of the St Vincent de Paul Society would like to thank you for your ongoing support for our Christmas Appeals. The food and gifts from your school are much appreciated. Some sixty hampers and many gifts were distributed to disadvantaged people within our community. This is ten more than in the previous year, so the need is constantly increasing. It is so important that these people are remembered at such a special time.

We would particularly like to mention donations from the canteen staff at Liwara. These are also very much appreciated.

Donations ensured that we were able to respond to all requests for help. Those who received food and gifts were extremely grateful. It means a great deal to us to be able to give just that little bit extra at such times.

Thank you once again.

Unearthing kids's strengths

by Professor Lea Waters (PhD)

Personality strengths – our character – play a big role in helping us build our our talents. Think about anyone who has built a talent and imagine if it could have been done without character. Imagine Einstein without curiosity, The Beatles without creativity, Mother Teresa without compassion or Neil Armstrong without bravery.

Yet for decades, scientists were blind to character strength. We focused on talent, often on physical strength and skills. In fact, when I first ask young children what they think a strength is, they almost always point to their biceps or talk about being able to lift something heavy.

Once you get familiar with the language of strengths and a framework for seeing them, you'll see character strengths easily in your child. In fact, you may find your child calls on their character strengths more often than on talent to meet life's challenges.

Three key elements of a strength

You've probably seen a child joylessly perform at a piano recital. They may hit all the right keys, but there's no energy or enthusiasm. It's as if they don't want to be there. On the flip side, we've seen the child onstage who's clearly motivated and energised and who fearlessly flails through every mistake – of which there are many.

It turns out that three elements come together to form a strength. For purposes of strength-based parenting, we need to keep our eye on all three:

1. Performance (being good at something).

Watch for when your child shows above-age levels of achievement, rapid learning, and a repeated pattern of success.

2. Energy (feeling good doing it)

Strengths are self-reinforcing. The more we use them, the more we get from them. They fill us with vigour. You'll notice your child has abundant energy when using a strength.

3. High use (choosing to do it)

Finally, look for what your child chooses to do in their spare time, how often they engage in a particular activity, and how they speak about that activity.

For true strengths, these three elements form a beautiful feedback loop: great performance provides the child with a shot of high energy, so the child naturally chooses to do more. In turn, high use – also known as effort or practice – improves performance levels. So, for example, if you notice that your child is energised when they play the piano, and you provide enjoyable opportunities for them to play, if they're mining a true strength they will likely practise more, which improves their performance, which then energises them ... and so the loop continues.

Keeping this triad in mind will help you avoid pushing your child into an area that seems like a strength just because your child is good at it. It will also help you differentiate between whether your child is bingeing on an activity in an escapist way or expressing a true strength.

For example, when a parent asks me, 'My son is great at computer games and wants to play all the time. Is that a sign of a strength?' I reply, 'Observe his energy levels at the end. Is he drained and cranky? Or energised and full of life? Are you seeing the full triad?' Computer games can tap into a child's strategic and problem-solving skills or stimulate creativity (in some games, you invent whole new worlds). Or they might just be about filling time. So look for all three signs. When you see your child do something well, with energy, and repeatedly, you'll know you've unearthed a strength.

You can attend our upcoming webinar, Switching on your child's Strengths, at no cost!

As your school is a Parenting Ideas Schools member, you can attend our upcoming webinar Switching on your child's strengths with Professor Lea Waters at no cost! Use the voucher code below to register for the webinar valued at $37 per person.

About the webinar

The extraordinary results of focusing on our children's strengths rather than always trying to correct their weaknesses is explained in this webinar. As a strength-based scientist for more than 20 years, Professor Waters has seen how this approach enhances self-esteem and energy in children and teenagers, and how parents find it exciting and rewarding. With many specific techniques for parents, she will demonstrate how to discover your children's strengths and talents, use positive emotions as a resource, build strong brains, deal with problem behaviour and talk about difficult situations and emotions.

When

Wednesday 6 March 2019 8:00 PM – 9:00 PM AEDT.

Harmony Day and Liwara Family Mass

Liwara will be celebrating Harmony Day on Thursday the 21st of March. Harmony Day is a day of cultural respect for everyone who calls Australia home - from the traditional owners of this land to those who have come from many countries around the world. To celebrate this important day the children of Liwara will be participating in activities to celebrate the many cultures that make us so special. The children are also asked to wear an orange accessory, which is the official Harmony Day colour.

To continue our celebrations, our Family Mass on Sunday 24 March at 9:30am at the All Saints' Parish will also focus on Harmony Day. At this Mass we will gather together to embrace and celebrate the wonderful cultures that are part of our Liwara community. In class, the children have been learning a hymn with Signora Rossi to sing at the Mass and there will be prayers read in a range of languages. It would be wonderful for all the Liwara children to come along to participate in this special celebration of diversity within our school and community.

Sustainable Living

Can you believe it is already Week 4 of Term 1?

What an exciting week it has been at Liwara. Mr Greenhill has begun mentoring the Year 6 Garden Gurus and Environment Ministry. Their first meeting was on Monday and everyone is keen and enthusiastic to make a difference at Liwara.

The Environment Ministry and Garden Gurus have planted silverbeet and different types of beans, organised our scrap bucket collection and distribution and even done a bit of weeding! We are hopeful that we shall begin feeding our worm farms within weeks with Liwara food scraps.

The Environment Ministry will be monitoring litter on our school grounds, particularly on the school oval. We are proud to say that we have had a great start to the school year with increased responsibility shown by students in selecting the correct form of recycling for their litter. New signage has been put up at red bins throughout the school highlighting non-recyclable waste (see photo below).

Presently, there is only one recycling bin in the Undercover Area for cardboard, paper, metal and plastic. This may change shortly, as new recycling bins are to be purchased in the coming months using the Water Wise Grant that Liwara secured in 2018.

There is no news yet from Greenbatch but, you shall be informed when news comes to hand. As you can see below the message of plastic recycling is being promoted to our Liwara students. Together we can all make a difference!

Have a wonderful long weekend and remember to REDUCE, RECYCLE and RE-USE.
Kind regards,
Mr Greenhill

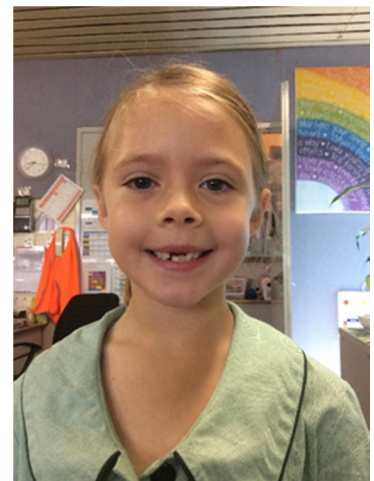

Yr 1 Class News

Year One is well under way and we are settling in beautifully...even Mrs Carberry and Mrs Shilkin. We know where to put our drink bottles, Crunch and Sip and our new homework bags. We have been very excited to start homework!!! Every morning we have jobs to do before we start the day. Drink bottles go in the trolley, crunch and sip goes in our tubs and now we even have to change our reading books...everyday!!!

It is so exciting to go to the canteen with our own money to buy things. Some of us would like to thank the tooth fairy for providing us with our canteen money to buy yummy treats.

We have discovered that the oval is an exciting place to play! The nature playground is amazing and now we get our own sports equipment so we can play all sorts of games. Now we are in Year One we are so much better at our writing. We have written about terrible tigers, hungry monsters and our weekend adventures. The more we write, the better we get! We are looking forward to so much more learning and so much more fun!!

Youth Ministry Goals & Results

We aimed to have 25 Youth at Youth Group

We saw 24 of us gathering together.

Present the idea of God being a Covenant Maker

This was achieved through the talk presented and the discussions afterwards.

Youth Group Games

Red light, Green light, The Wall

Youth Group Talk/Focus

We then focused on how the people of the Old Testament longed for a Messiah as promised by God who cared for his people through the covenants he made with them. Even though His people would turn away God was faithful to His promises as is seen in the gift of Jesus, our saviour to live among us.

Youth Ministry Activities

The youth group is really excited about will be helping out with the Parish Summer Fair on the 10th of March.

Next Youth Group

Sunday the 3rd of March we will be looking at The Power of the Cross.
